Gold Star Frame :

Two colors of gold acrylic paint were sponged onto the frame for the base color. Using the red, white, green, and gold quilling strips I made the design. Some red poinsettias and little fringed flowers (tipped in red on an ink pad before fluffing) were added. Next the green leaves....the smaller ones were dabbed on a blue ink pad to add a bit of contrast. Some pine boughs with pine cones, gold spirals, and a couple of punched leaves complete the quilling. To finish off the design the red gems were added for sparkle.

“Oh Christmas Tree” Card :

The sparkly gems looked like Christmas lights to me, so I made a tree to “hang” them on. The silver quilling strips were used to showcase the star and planter. I added a half scallop silver circle (not included in the kit) to compliment the silver strips. I finished it off with a bit of ribbon and some holly die cuts.

Mini Album:

The idea for this mini album came from the book “Mad for Mini’s” by Michele Charles. I changed up the theme to Christmas for this little match box album. There are so many possibilities with this project, you could make several and hang them on the tree! I used punched elements to create the design on the front. Using the holiday papers in the kit, I covered the boxes, punched a hole in the top, and added ribbon pulls and ribbon on the outside to tie. Then I dug out my girls’ first Christmas pictures to add on the “pages”...ahhh memories!

Christmas pictures to add on the “pages”...ahhh memories!

December Calendar Pages:

Here is another design for the December calendar page that features floral punch poinsettias, pinecones, and white pearlescent accent flowers. It features a floral punch poinsettia made with the dahlia punch. You can make all the petals and leaves with this punch as well as different sizes of flowers. This poinsettia would look stunning in the red and green velvet paper that Denise sells! Or, you could quill your poinsettias! The pinecones are made from the small pear punch. Your beautiful work will not be used just once because the page is made to be perpetual and you can replace the calendar part for the current year.

Guest Welcome Bathroom Set:

The festive holly designer paper in the November kit inspired the motif for this set to welcome holiday guests. The set includes a bar of soap, bath salts and a holiday washcloth or hand towel made “special” with the quilled holly motif. You can put the set in a basket or arrange them on the bathroom counter to surprise your guests. The can that holds the bath salts uses the holly designer paper, the green, red and white card stock from the kit. I used a border punch on the green card stock and layered it with the red and white die cut shapes. The holly leaves and berries were quilled and make a nice border for the sentiment. It is nice as is, or you could add other essential or thoughtful gifts (for men and women) embellished in the same motif to this set. Your holiday guests will feel special and pampered.

Bedroom Welcome Gift Set:

The welcome continues for your guests in the room where they will stay. A framed quilted welcome with jeweled holly will greet your guests and tell them that they are family and to make themselves at home. A gift candle to scent the room with holiday cheer is surrounded by a ring of poinsettias accented with jeweled, quilled accents.

To finish off this set, a box filled with sweet treats for your guests to nibble on is embellished with quilled peppermints and "sugared" gumdrops.

Reviews

“Christmas is coming, the goose is getting fat, pleased to put a penny in the old man’s hat...”

It is that time of year... well ALMOST! November’s kit will give you a lot of supplies to make great Christmas gifts in the time that is left. In the kit this month, there is a wonderful assortment of holiday themed papers with quilling strips to match. Also included is a paper maché frame, sparkly gems, and cards to make for those special people. Get into the holiday spirit with this kit!

Sonya

The November kit has all the supplies just ready and waiting for you to make a variety of festive quilled projects and gifts. The sparkly crystal stones to bling up your creations go beautifully with the holiday set of quilling strips, designer papers, and cardstock. Sue created an elegant frame for a family holiday picture with the ready-to-decorate frame included in the kit. From cards to gift tags for the presents you make, I’m sure you will have fun with this kit as I did!
