Doreen's Butterfly Card:

This is another husked butterfly that I designed using the Fall colors assortment. Look for the pattern soon!

Sue's Harvest Angel Plant Poke:

With this project I got out my comb tool and my die cut machine. I used the old red doll die cut for the angel, and the cuttlebug leaf for the wings. I dressed her in a gown make from the comb tool and burgundy strips using a scalloped oval folded in half for the yoke. Since she is a harvest angel I gave her a pumpkin and a sunflower to hold with a colorful mini leaf punch halo. Next I added more of the single vine sticker down the middle of a huge craft stick, some chalk and then glued her to the top. She is just in time to poke into a house plant as a decoration for fall.

Heidi's Leaf Card Ingredients:

Sunflower Card:
What Fall designs wouldn't be complete without a sunflower! This is quite a simple design to make. I highlighted the crimped center with the stardust clear glitter gel pen.

Pumpkin Tag:
This is my first attempt at doing anything Halloween like, but it was quite fun! This is a whimsical design, to give to a special Trick or Treater with their candies. Colors used were the dark orange, brown, green, and black.

Trick or Treat Tear Bear :

For my second project I used the big off white card as the base, layering a black background on top because Halloween is spooky right and the moon is out! I wanted to try my hand at a tear bear since I had just gotten the mulberry paper on eBay...my first one. I have to admit, the candy corn paper is what inspired this card. A smaller version of the first pumpkin, some smaller punched pumpkins and a die cut moon add to the Halloween feel. For this card I used the double vine sticker and some of the orange ribbon and the chalk for highlights again.

Plump Pumpkin:

I dug out my old ellipse templates to create a big bright pumpkin! How can you go wrong with a pumpkin!! I used the smaller off white card for the base, added the dark green underneath, then layered the dark brown and crackle papers on top. I used the single vine sticker down one side. I ran the ochre paper through my computer to make the greeting. Next pop dots added to the center of the pumpkin for dimension, a ribbon and some quilled embellishments to add interest. Last, a bit of chalk to show highlights finishes the card off.

Judy McCormick from Windsor, Ontario, Canada

My name is Judy McCormick. My mom taught me to quill when I was ten years old. I was hooked. I'm now 36 years old and I have been trying ever since to revitalize this lost art by teaching at Scrapbooking stores, Community Centres, Senior Centres, and even to my daughter's Girl Guide Unit.

About eight years ago, I did manage to meet up with another woman, June, who did quilling. We met at the Harrow Fair, in Harrow, Ontario. Together we worked on bringing the art back to the local county fair. In the off season we booked a hall at the fair grounds and I taught Calligraphy and June taught Quilling. I learned to make folded roses through June. Fringed flowers are alright, until you learn to make roses.

The first year we had to enter our quilling under the category of 'any other craft done before 1900'. I took first place with a framed quilled Wedding gown. The following year, we had an actual quilling category. I made submissions over the next two years and upon receiving first place ribbons in Quilling and Calligraphy I was asked by a Fair Board director to judge the arts and crafts. Over the years the number of entries have increased, and the quality of the work is outstanding. Especially since supplies can be hard to come by in Canada. I'm very fortunate to be neighbour to Detroit. The internet is also a great resource to talk with other quillers, be inspired by what they are designing, and to order supplies.

I had waited a long time before ordering punches from Denise. I don't know what I was waiting for. I think I was hoping my local craft store would get the punches in, but being the third world country as we are here in Canada, I decided to take matters into my own hands, and I'm glad I did. The punches arrived in less than a week after ordering them, and besides the exchange rate adjustment the price given was the price I paid, no outrageous customs fees.

I can't wait to create, and I hope that I have inspired you.

A mix of playful Halloween and elegant fall foliage colors

Sue

There are tons of papers to choose from in the September kit. Rich deep brown, green, orange, ochre even a candy corn print!! All of this added with the bright ribbons, cool vine stickers and the fall quilling strips; make for a ton of creative possibilities. I was excited to begin creating since my favorite time of the year is autumn

Doreen

The fall assortment, has a great color selection, however, I noticed *different weights in the strips, which some may have trouble with, at some colors roll differently than others do. The whole kit was fun to work with, especially designing the butterfly with those colors.

Note: With all quilling strips no matter the manufacture the colors with deeper hues will have a "stiffer" feel due to the color dyes added during milling process.
